

Influencing with Impact and Authority

Influencing with Impact and Authority supports professionals to enhance their influence and impact in the workplace by exploring different influencing approaches and identifying the principles of communication with authority and impact. The program helps people to deny their natural influencing approach and at the same time develop alternative approaches to suit different situations.

The program uses a variety of experiential learning methods, such as pre-course reading, different models and frameworks and group exercises to stimulate new thinking and fresh perspectives. The program will assist the organisation in strengthening and expanding its client portfolio through enhancing client satisfaction and will provide our people with tools and frameworks to be more effective in their interactions with our clients.

Who should attend the seminar?

The programme is designed for professionals looking to enhance their influence and impact in the workplace, including team leaders managers from different industries and with diverse occupational background.

The programme specifications have been approved by the HRDA.
