

Leading with trust: Building powerful relationships and communication

PwC's Academy
Cyprus

“Leaders establish trust with candor, transparency, and credit.” - Jack Welch

Being a leader requires more than technical knowledge and management skills. Key characteristics of successful leaders are positive relationships, trust and effective communication. How do you gain trust between your colleagues, clients, associates, friends? How do you communicate with them effectively and with impact? How do you give and receive feedback? These are a few areas the seminar will concentrate on, focusing on becoming trustful leaders.

Who should attend the seminar?

Junior or senior executives who would like to:

- understand their leadership brand
- become entrusted leaders amongst their teams
- enhance their relationships with colleagues, clients, associates, friends and family
- learn how to communicate effectively
- learn how to give and receive feedback
