

Virtual live seminar

Recent local tax developments

The programme provides an overview of the developments of the Cyprus Taxation during 2019. In more detail the programme will involve step by step explanations on the new Benefits in Kind regulation introduced by the Tax Department in 2019 and brief explanations on GHS provisions introduced in our tax system on 1 March 2019. In addition, there will be a reference to all local tax legislations voted during 2019.

Who should attend the seminar?

People who work in accounting departments and wish to understand better the new Benefits in Kind regulation and to any other person who would like to get updated with the recent tax developments.
