

Taxation of Employment Income

The programme provides an overview of the basic employment income principles and explains how the emoluments are taxed. It involves step by step explanations on the new benefits in kind regulations introduced by the Tax Department in 2019. In addition, it also contains a detailed explanation on all provisions (new and existing) affecting the exemptions available to non-resident individual who commences employment in Cyprus and the new rules introduced in July 2022 and June 2023.

Who should attend the seminar?

- People who work in accounting departments and wish to understand better the new Benefits in Kind regulation
- Any individual who wishes to learn how employment emoluments are taxed
