

The Practical Application of the New Cyprus Tax Reform

This seminar provides a comprehensive and practical overview of the Cyprus tax reform, focusing on its key changes, policy objectives, and implications for businesses, investors, and tax professionals. Designed to combine technical analysis with real-world application, the seminar will equip participants with the knowledge needed to navigate the new tax landscape confidently and compliantly.

Key topics include:

- Overview and objectives of the Cyprus tax reform
- Changes affecting corporate taxation and business structures
- Implications for individuals, shareholders, and high-net-worth taxpayers
- Impact on investments, financing, and holding structures
- Transitional rules, compliance requirements, and timelines
- Tax Department's Guidelines and circulars on the tax reform
- Other tax updates
- Practical case studies and planning considerations

Who should attend the seminar?

The programme is addressed to:

- Accountants and auditors
- Lawyers and corporate service providers
- CFOs, finance managers, and in-house tax teams
- Business owners, investors, and decision-makers with Cyprus exposure
- Any person who wish to understand the practical application of the Cyprus Tax Reform

PwC's Academy Cyprus

16 December 2026

9:30 – 16:30
(6 CPD units)

PwC Central
43 Demostheni Severi
Avenue, 1080 Nicosia

Polina Jacovidou Michael
Professional Qualifications
Lead & Tutor, PwC's Academy

Follow this link to register

Fee

€275 / HRDA Subsidy: €120 (Eligible participants will pay €155)

*The programme specifications have been approved by the HRDA.

Professional Qualifications Lead, PwC's Academy

Polina Jacovidou Michael

Polina Jacovidou Michael is a seasoned tax specialist and professional educator with over 28 years of experience in taxation, and professional training. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Law and Accounting from the University of London (LSE) and is a Fellow Member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (FCCA) and a Member of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Cyprus (ICPAC).

Polina began her career as a trainee accountant with one of the Big Four accounting firms in Cyprus. Since then, she has dedicated her career to professional education, delivering training in UK and Cyprus Taxation both locally and internationally. She currently teaches taxation across all levels of the ICAEW and ACCA qualifications.

In addition to her teaching roles, Polina regularly delivers Continuing Professional Development (CPD) seminars and has extensive experience preparing qualified accountants for the ICPAC Aptitude Test in Cyprus Taxation.

She is also an approved trainer by the Human Resource Development Authority (HRDA) in Cyprus and has been actively involved in designing and delivering HRDA-approved training programs across the financial services sector.

Polina is an accredited Mentor and Coach, and a proud member of the European Mentoring and Coaching Council (EMCC), actively supporting the professional growth of individuals in the accounting and finance industry.

She is currently part of PwC's Academy in Cyprus, where she continues to inspire and educate the next generation of finance professionals.